

PARENT PERMISSION AND WAIVER FOR FIELD TRIP/ACTIVITY PARTICIPATION

Your son/daughter is eligible to participate in a Youth Garden sponsored activity at a location away from the community garden. This activity will take place under the guidance and supervision of Big Muddy Urban Farm Farmer Residents and adult volunteers.

Field Trip Description

Thanks to a grant from Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (SARE), youth gardeners will go on a field trip to two local farms, expanding their perspective of agriculture and the surrounding landscape. The farms are located 19 miles from Gifford Park in Honey Creek, IA. The first stop will be to Honey Creek Creamery to see how goat cheese is made. The second stop will be to a 10-acre vegetable farm called Iowana.

Date: August 19th, 2017

Time: 9:30 am - arrive at Youth Garden

10:00 am - leave Youth Garden

10-12pm - Honey Creek Creamery/Lunch

12-1:30 am - Iowana

2 pm - return to Community Garden

Transportation: School Bus from Student

Transportation of America

Notes: Students should bring a sack lunch. Let Brent know if you will have trouble getting a lunch together.

This field trip has no cost thanks to SARE.
